Super Youth Festival "Best Practice"

Purpose

To develop a fresh, innovative approach to the competition format for athletes in the Learn to Train phase of the LTAD. The Learn to Train phase is characterized by an accelerated development of coordination and fine motor skills as well as an enjoyment in practicing skills they learn and seeing their own improvement.

The aim of this new format is to provide athletes with "meaningful competition". The proposed shift will be from traditional Olympic style competition format to skill-based modules in an effort for athletes to ski more, develop foundational skills, and have FUN.

Example Schedule

Wednesday – Registration Thursday – Training & "Hunt of GNAR" Friday – Slopestyle & "Hunt of GNAR" Saturday – Mogul & "Hunt of GNAR" Sunday – Halfpipe Clinic & Jam

Freestyle BC "Hunt of GNAR" - ex. Whistler Edition

Every mountain in BC has something unique to offer visitors. Throughout the weekend, groups will explore parts of the mountain while transitioning between skills modules and after their events. Each group will take pictures/videos of the tasks in the Hunt of GNAR. Points will be awarded for tasks completed as either a group or individual for the group.

2 different club groups will be paired together for the weekend to ski together. One group will be a host mountain group and the other will be a visiting club. The event will try to operate on a 6:1 athlete to coach ratio. If visiting clubs need more support (single coach bringing 7 or more athletes please reach out to chris@freestylewhistler.com) the OC will provide a local BC Team athlete with Fundamentalz training as a resource.

Most check boxes win! Build a downloadable PDF form; with the entire scavenger hunt list of items located on the map, as a guide for all the athletes competing for the title of GNAR.

Course Jams - Olympic Formats

The final 3 days of the weekend will be spent working on Olympic style competition formats in a jam setting.

Groups will have a designated start time for each of their runs allowing groups to ski to other venues and to visit the host mountain when they are not competing.

U8 & U10's train and compete first followed by U12 & U14 train and compete.

Based on U8/10 size, the LOC may have them all as one group for the entire weekend. After competition is finished at 10:30 am have local coaches lead group through the scavenger hunt. Invite any parents with unsure kids to be able to come with and do a party shred.

U12/14. Groups will be made so that home coaches are with groups who know the mountains the least. LOC could pair 3 groups together for "party shreds" so that there is a home coach with each group. Groups might move slower through the big mountain areas but the energy would be high.

Groups & Coaching

Event will aim to provide a 6:1 athlete to coach ratio. Groups will change daily for the 3 days with the 1st day skiing with their own club. This is to create a greater sense of community within Freestyle BC. Group ability could be done based on age, coach's discretion and skier ability.

If clubs can't provide a 6:1 athlete to coach ratio, we may have BC Team athletes with Fundamentalz certification that are able to work as assistant coaches for the weekend.

Athletes (mentors) in mind:

<sup>**</sup> Final schedule will be based on registration and how large each age group is.
