

BC WINTER GAMES SELECTION POLICY

UPDATED: September 2022

It is the goal of Freestyle BC to work with the BC Winter Games Society to promote and facilitate a multi-sport event for British Columbia's Youth for the enhancement of sport development. The purpose of the BC Winter Games (BCWG) is:

- To provide a competitive opportunity for developing athletes in the Learn to Train and Train to Train phases
- To motivate British Columbians to achieve a higher level of physical fitness and mental well being
- To assist athletes with the interest and ability to work toward their maximum potential
- To provide competition that will serve the developmental needs for each sport throughout British Columbia
- To showcase the talents of British Columbians in a wide range of sport and activities
- To develop the cultural and social components as an enhancement to the Winter Games in British Columbia
- To provide each hosting community with a legacy of experienced volunteers and upgrade facilities

Events for 2022 BC Winter Games

- Moguls | Two (2) run, best run counts
- Slopestyle | Two (2) runs, best run counts
- Big Air | Two (2) jumps, best jump counts
- Combined | Results averaged from all three (3) disciplines
- All BC Winter Games competitors will compete in all three events.
- Capacity: 70 athletes in total.

Age Categories & Medals:

- U14: athletes must be 11-13 year of age as of January 1, 2023
- U16: athletes must be 14-16 years of age as of January 1, 2023

Passion. Discipline. Focus.

---

ELIGIBILITY

Athlete

To be eligible for selection to the BC Team Winter Games an athlete must:

- Have an active provincial membership with Freestyle Canada indicating that they are part of a Freestyle BC registered club
- Be registered in a Freestyle BC club program
- Be a member in good standing with Freestyle BC
- Athletes may attend two BC Winter Games, provided that their first games they competed in the Learn to Train (U14) category.
- Athletes who have competed in the Canada Games are ineligible to compete in the BC Winter Games in the same sport.

Coaches

All coaches and chaperones must be at least nineteen (19) years old by the start of the BC Winter Games.

All head coaches must be a minimum Fundamentalz Certified (Trained and Evaluated) and one of the following:

- Skiing Skills; or
- Air 1, Air 2, Air 3, and Air 4; or
- Park & Pipe module.

All assistant coaches must be minimum Fundamentalz Trained. All coaches must have taken through the NCCP:

- Making Ethical Decisions Evaluation
- SafeSport module

Coaches with athletes performing inverts must have the appropriate certification for maneuvers being coached. For example, a coach must hold the Air 4 Evaluation if their athlete is performing a back tuck or a cork 720.

One head coach and one assistant coach (one of each gender) per zone. Large zone teams (from wildcard athletes) are permitted to bring one additional coach or adult supervisor up to a maximum of 20 adults (coaches or adult supervisors). Provincial Advisor to approve additional assistant coach or adult supervisor.

Passion. Discipline. Focus.

---

Manager, Chaperone, Supervisor

All adult supervisors must:

- Be 19+ at the time of the Games
- Have taken 'Making Ethical Decisions Evaluation', through the NCCP.

SELECTION PROCESS

Selection Period: January 1st 2022 to February 5th, 2023.

Selection Process:

1. Quota spots will be allocated to the top eligible athletes in FBC's 2023 BCWG Ranking list for each gender in each zone. The 2023 BCWG Ranking will include all Timber Tour and Regional events in the Selection Period.
2. The Timber Tour results will be weighted at 100%, regional events will be weighted at 85%. Regional event results submitted to the PSO after February 5th will not be eligible.
3. An athlete's top one (1) results from each of the three (3) disciplines will be taken to form their total RPA score. This score will determine their ranking and spot allocation.
4. Each zone is allowed four (4) spots – (2) two males and (2) two females. Zones may also qualify for a predetermined number of Wildcard spots.
5. Within each zone the top ranked athletes based on the 2023 BCWG Ranking list will be selected for that zone's team.
6. All athletes are expected to participate in all disciplines of our sport.

---

Wildcard Policy

Wildcard spots are allocated to the zones which make up the largest percentage(s) of our membership. Zones requesting additional spots are to apply to the Provincial Sport Advisor. The Provincial Sport Advisor has the final decision on the distribution of all wildcards.

- Wildcard spots will be distributed from the BCWG Ranking list.
- Wildcard spot selection aims to maintain gender equity where possible.

Eligibility of BC Games Competitors

Competitor spots shall be open to British Columbians whose major domicile has been the province of BC for a period of (6) months prior to the Games, with the following exceptions:

- Students residing in BC but studying outside the province are eligible to qualify.
- Members and dependents of members of the Canadian Armed Forces residing in BC, who have been posted to a location within BC for a minimum of six (6) months, are eligible to qualify.
- Athletes residing at an address outside the Province of British Columbia but are members for Freestyle BC are eligible for the BC Winter Games if they meet both of the following conditions
  - o They reside near the BC boundary and associate primarily with a BC Club for club training / competition;
  - o They are not registered to compete in any other province, and are in good standing with Freestyle BC

The Provincial Sport Organization and the BC Winter Games Society must approve teams and individuals in the above situations, before entering zone qualifications.

- The Provincial Sport Association must approve all athletes competing in the Games.
- Affiliation at the zone and provincial level is required. Athletes must have minimum FC Club Membership license membership.
- Each athlete may participate in only ONE sport at the BC Winter Games.

BC Games Zones

BC Games Zones differ from Freestyle BC Zones.

- Click here for more details on BC Games Zones.
- Athletes and Coaches are expected to qualify and compete within their BC Games Zone which is a function of the participant's physical mailing address.

BC Winter Games Expectations

All participants (athletes, coaches and adult supervisors) are required to stay in BC Games accommodation and travel on BC Games transportation services. All participants are expected to abide by the Freestyle BC Code of Conduct and the BC Games Society Culture of the Games.

- Click here for more info on the Culture of the Games.
- Coaches and adult supervisors are expected to supervise athletes during the Games and be accountable to the conduct of their athletes.

Games Registration Fee

All zone athletes who qualify to compete at the BC Winter Games (excluding coaches and chaperones), are required to pay the individual registration fee of $250 payable to Freestyle BC. This fee will go towards offsetting the costs related to Games transportation accommodations, meals, zone identification vests, medals, athlete entertainment and sport competitions.

- All athletes, coaches and chaperones who will attend the BC Winter Games will be required to complete waivers and register online by February 10th, 2023

Passion. Discipline. Focus.

---

Registration Process

Athletes will pursue the qualification and selection period as noted above.

- All participants, including athletes, coaches and adult chaperones must commit to their BC Winter Games spot by February 9th.
- All athletes must pay the athlete fee by February 10th
- Freestyle BC will submit final participant registrant details to the BC Games Society no later than February 13, 4:00pm.
- BC Games Society will send various Games information directly to all final registered participants via physical mail and email by approximately February 22. This includes BC Games waivers, Culture of the Games on-line module, Games travel itinerary and other Games information.

Appeals

Any Freestyle BC member may make an appeal of any decision in good standing. Appeals must be conducted in accordance with the Appeals Policy established by Freestyle BC.

General

Issues not otherwise covered by this document are subject to the decision of the Executive Director of Freestyle BC, in consultation with the HP Committee.