

BC WINTER GAMES SELECTION CRITERIA

UPDATED: November 2023

Freestyle BC aims to work with the BC Winter Games Society to promote and facilitate a multi-sport event for British Columbia's Youth to enhance sports development.

1. The purpose of the BC Winter Games (BCWG) is to:

- 1.1 Provide a competitive opportunity for developing athletes in the Learn to Train and Train to Train phases.
- 1.2 Motivate British Columbians to achieve higher physical fitness and mental well-being. Assist athletes with the interest and ability to work toward their maximum potential.
- 1.3 Provide competition that will serve the developmental needs of each sport throughout British Columbia.
- 1.4 Showcase the talents of British Columbians in a wide range of sports and activities. Develop the cultural and social components to enhance the Winter Games in British Columbia.
- 1.5 Provide each hosting community with a legacy of experienced volunteers and upgrade facilities.

2. Events for the 2024 BC Winter Games

- 2.1 Moguls: Two (2) runs, best run counts
- 2.2 Slopestyle: Two (2) runs, best run counts

All BC Winter Games competitors will compete in all events.

7. Eligibility of BC Games Competitors

Competitor spots shall be open to British Columbians whose primary domicile has been the province of BC for (6) months before the start of the Games, with the following exceptions:

7.1 Students residing in BC but studying outside the province are eligible to qualify.

7.2 Members and dependents of Canadian Armed Forces members residing in BC who have been posted to a location within BC for a minimum of six (6) months are eligible.

7.3 Athletes residing at an address outside the Province of British Columbia but are members of Freestyle BC are eligible for the BC Winter Games if they meet both of the following conditions:

- They reside near the BC boundary and associate primarily with a BC Club for club training/competition;
- They are not registered to compete in any other province and are in good standing with Freestyle BC.

Before entering zone qualifications, the Provincial Sport Organization and the BC Winter Games Society must approve teams and individuals in the above situations.

7.4 The Provincial Sport Organization must approve all athletes competing in the Games.

7.5 Affiliation at the zone and provincial level is required. Athletes must have a minimum Freestyle BC Provincial Membership license membership.

7.6 Each athlete may participate in only one sport at the BC Winter Games.

8. Selection Period: January 1st, 2023, to January 7th, 2024.

9. Selection Process

9.1 Quota spots will be allocated to the top eligible athletes in FBC's 2023 BCWG Ranking list for each gender in each zone.

9.2 The 2023 BCWG Ranking will include all Timber Tour, BCWG and Regional events.

9.3 For the 2024 BCWG ONLY, the Timber Tour results are weighted at 100%; regional events are weighted at 55%, and the 2023 BCWG are weighted at 100%

9.4 Regional event results submitted to the PSO after January 7th will not be eligible.

9.5 An athlete's top one (1) result from both disciplines will be taken to form their total Ranking score. This score will determine their ranking and spot allocation.

9.6 Each zone is given four (4) spots – (2) two males and (2) two females. Zones may also qualify for a predetermined number of Wildcard spots.

9.7 Within each zone, the top-ranked athletes based on the 2024 BCWG Ranking list will be selected for that zone's team.

9.8 Non-ranked athletes may be selected if no other athletes accept their spot.

9.9 All athletes are expected to participate in all disciplines of our sport.

10. Wildcard Policy

Wildcard spots are allocated to the zones that comprise the most significant percentage(s) of our membership. Zones requesting additional spots are to apply to the Provincial Advisor. The Provincial Advisor makes the final decision on distributing all wildcards.

10.1 Wildcard spots will be distributed from the BCWG Ranking list.

10.2 Wildcard spot selection aims to maintain gender equity where possible.

11. BC Games Zones

BC Games Zones may differ from Freestyle BC Zones.
